Nursery & KG Morning Supervision

In order to ensure the safety of the children in our care, we require advance notice of the children intending to make use of our morning supervision which is available from 07:30 – 08:30. This service will be supervised by an experienced Early Years staff member and the children will be engaging in quiet activities such as listening to stories, outdoor play, or playing tabletop activities. We cannot take children who are not pre-registered for this service. Kindly complete the form if you wish to register your child.
